Card of Thanks to Dr Chong.

AFTER BEING TREATED FIVE MONTHS by a white doctor, and spending nearly $300, I was no better than when I first went to them. I had quite despaired of being relieved when I met Dr Chong, and in THREE DAYS I was a well man. I write this card to discharge a debt of gratitude I owe to Dr Chong, which cheerfully say, was reasonable. My complaint was neuralgia. WILLIAM McCORMICK.

C. FRANCIS BARNARD, MD.
SURGEON DENTIST.

DR. BARNARD HAS HAD FOR several months the "Perkins Hyatt" or "Celluloid Base," the newest and latest material adapted to the mounting of whole sets of teeth: he is also using "Whalebone-Rubber," which is rapidly supplanting, for single dentures or partial sets, the best vulcanite of the last 25 years.
We cheerfully add Dr. B's card to our columns, convinced that his good taste and judgment, united to natural skill and ingenuity, aided by an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, render his services more valuable and reliable than those of any other Dentist on the Sound, Coast or Island.
Dr. B's large experience may be readily seen in the happy and natural expression given his patrons by his life-like insertion of artificial Teeth.
The public may rest assured of patience, gentleness and undivided attention while under the Dr's hands, and that he will ever strive to be foremost in adopting helps and hints touching his own interest and that of his patrons.

THE BRITISH COLONIST.

Thursday Morning, April 11, 1872

The Session and its Fruits.

The first session of the first Legislative Assembly of the Pacific Province of the Dominion began on the 15th February, and will end to-day.—two months, less four days. Speaking generally, the new House has exhibited a very respectable amount of debative ability and legislative capacity and has fulfilled the expectations formed by those who have long contended that the people of British Columbia were quite fit to undertake the management of their own local affairs. Whatever apprehensions may have been entertained by some on this point must have vanished. When contending for Responsible Government, its advocates claimed that the inauguration of that form of administration would bring to the front talent hidden under the bushel of the despotic system, and the existence of which few realized. We venture to think that the session now drawing to a close has verified the correctness of that position. The new House, we have been assured over and over again by gentlemen competent to form a correct opinion, and who speak from personal observation, would have no occasion to shrink from a comparison with the Ontario House. It is not in a boastful spirit that these observations are made; but in justice to the Pacific Province, and in justification of the position maintained for more than a decade by this paper; viz, that the people of British Columbia possessed those qualities essential to self-government in a higher degree than older communities. When it is remembered that this Province passed with a single bound from the condition of a Crown Colony to that of a free, self-governing community, and that the new Cabinet and the new House had, in the short space allotted, to create, organize, and set in motion, it must be admitted that the result, taken as a whole, is calculated to gratify the friends and reassure the enemies of the new system. There were those who regarded the change as "a leap in the dark;" but it has proved to be a leap out of the darkness and bondage of despotism and, we fear we must add, corruption, into the light and liberty of true British freedom. We would not wish to be understood as placing our seal of approbation upon every act of the Government and of the Legislature. Mistakes there have undoubtedly been; but taking the policy of the Government and the work of the Legislature as a whole, we must regard the gross result with satisfaction and compliment the country thereupon. Let us glance at the fruits. In addition to the numerous resolutions and addresses which have been passed, some of them bearing upon Federal questions of vital importance to the Province, the following Bills have been passed, viz, the Statutes Interpretation, Demise of Crown, Assembly Privileges, Civil List Repeal, Oaths to Witnesses, Consolidated Revenue, Notaries Public, Road Amendment, Lunacy Jurisdiction, Civil Officers Security, Justices and Coroners, Executive Officers Titles, Naval and Military Titles, Jury Verdict, Election Regulation Amendment, Public Enquiry, Common Schools, Mining Law Amendment, Road Tolls Abolition, Breeding Stock, Intestate Estate Fees, Adoption of Canadian Customs Tariff, Providing a third Puisne Judge, Rendering legitimate children born out of wedlock in certain cases, Extension of Electoral Franchise, Marriage Explanitory, Public Works, County Courts, Registration of Births Deaths and Marriages, Inheritence, Amendment of Schedule A of Constitution, Municipal system, Land Clauses, Game, Administration of Justice, Foreign Companies Registration, Supply, Wild Land Tax, Real Estate Tax List Relief, Constitution Amendent, Circuit Courts. These Bills, forty in number, constitute only a part of the work of the session, and many of them bear the impress of a liberal and progressive spirit of Reform. Take, for instance, the Qualification of Voters Bill, which invites every bona fide resident British subject to take an active part in the great work of self-government; the School Bill, which places a free education within reach of every child in the land; the Municipal Bill, which enables every settlement to manage its own local affairs, and thus educate the people in the art of self-government; the Inheritance Bill, which divides equally amongst the children or nearest of kin the property of persons dying intestate; the Road Tolls Repeal Bill, which throws open free as the high seas to all comers the main trunk road of the Province; and, last but not least, the Tariff Bill, which gives the people free bread, and relieves them of an annual Federal tax of one hundred thousand dollars a year. These two last mentioned measures alone relieve the country of an annual taxation of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars,—a relief which the people will know how to appreciate. We congratulate the country upon the fruits of the first session of the first free Parliament on the British Pacific.

A. GILMORE, MERCHANT TAILOR, and General Outfitter, has removed his place of business to the store adjoining the Colonial Hotel and opposite the Colonist Office, on Government street, fourth door from Yates, where he proposes to give his old friends and new customers a chance on the principle of quick sales and small profits. *

First Provincial Legislative Assembly.

FIRST SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, April 10th, 1872.

The Speaker took the Chair at 2 p.m.

FOREIGN COMPANIES REGISTRATION BILL.

This Bill was read a third time and passed.

WILD LAND TAX BILL.

To this Bill Hon Mr McCreight moved an amendment that lands reserved for railway purposes shall not come under the operation of this Act.

Dr Ash objected. The amendment was not in order.

The Speaker sustained the objection.

Mr Robson pointed out that the amendment was immaterial, as the Act was not intended to come in force until next year.

Hon Mr McCreight withdrew the amendment.

The Bill was read a third time and passed, notwithstanding a protest of irregularity from Dr Ash.

MUNICIPAL BILL.

The report on the Municipal Bill was adopted.

Dr Ash objected to the third reading at this time as extraordinary and contrary to the rules of the House.

Mr Smithe wished to see the Bill amended

Mr Mara said it make no difference — the bill was virtually dead now as far as the Mainland was concerned.

Mr Robson said he did not rise for the purpose of offering opposition to the Bill but to express regret that so very important a measure should be virtually killed by its chief promoters having inserted the illiberal provision which excludes foreigners from voting at Municipal elections. He took Yale as an illustration. Probably not more than one-eighth of the property owners in that town are British subjects. Would it be right to give that faction the sole power to tax the property of the whole? The result would be that Yale, in common with many other places, would not avail itself of the Act, and the measure would, therefore, be a dead letter, at least in so far as the Mainland was concerned. He threw upon those who had put into the Bill that illiberal provision the whole responsibility of virtually killing it.

Mr Humphreys agreed with the hon member for Nanaimo. Owing to the illiberality of the promoters of the Bill it had been killed. It was a disgrace to the Province and he was glad it was dead.

The Bill was passed.

PRIVILEGE.

Mr Beaven rose to a question of privilege to reply to the remarks of the hon members for Nanaimo and Lillooet with respect to the illiberality of the promoters of the Bill.

Mr Robson—Are we to debate the Municipal Bill again?

The Speaker—No; the hon member for Victoria City is out of order.

Mr Beaven—You misrepresented me, that is all.

FENCE BILL.

Mr Armstrong withdrew the Fence Bill as the Muncipal Bill covered the ground sought by the Bill.

HAWKER'S AND PEDLAR'S BILL.

Mr Bunster withdrew the Hawker's and Pedlar's Bill.

PRIVILEGE—EXECUTIVE SECRETS.

Dr Ash asked the Hon Attorney-General if he had advised His Excellency the Governor to withhold his assent from the Qualification of Voters' Bill?

Hon Mr McCreight—I am not to tell the hon members what I advise his Excellency to do. I am sworn to secrecy.

Dr. Ash was pleased to hear that—(laughter). But there had been times when the secrets of the Executive prison-house were flashed from end to end of the colony—(laughter and hear).

Hon Mr. Walkem—The least said about those telegrams the better—(laughter).

Dr. Ash—Yes; by the Hon. Chief Commissioner—(renewed laughter).

SKEENA TRAIL.

Mr. Robson presented a report from the select committee on the Skeena trails, as follows:—

Your committee, appointed to enquire into and report upon certain alleged claims and grievances in respect of the construction of a trail leading from the Forks of Skeena river to Babine lake, beg to report as follows:

1st—With the evidence before it, your committee finds it impossible to arrive at any definite and final conclusion

2nd—Your committee finds that a considerable sum of money has been expended in good faith in the construction of the trail.

3.—The tolls upon the trunk road having been abolished, your committee deem it unadvisable that tolls should be imposed on the Skeena trail, and it is hoped that the Executive may be enabled to effect a compromise with the contractor, which will enable the trail in question to be thrown open free to all.

JNO. ROBSON,
Chairman of Committee.

Victoria, April 10, 1872.

Mr. Robson moved the adoption of the report.

Hon. Mr. Robertson said that the only compromise that could be effected would be by the Government buying the trail. The report, therefore, involved a money expenditure.

The Speaker thought the adoption of report was not in order.

Mr. Robson—The appointment of the committee then was a mockery.

Hon. Mr. McCreight said the mere circumstance that the sum was not mentioned did not make the report less of a money measure.

Mr. R. Smith thought the report should be adopted.

Mr. Humphreys said it was pure, unmitigated nonsense to refer a subject to a select committee and then tell them that the report could not be received.

Mr. Mara asked if similar cases had not been referred to select committees in Canada?

Hon. Mr. McCreight knew of no such cases.

Mr. J. P. Booth moved an amendment that the report be received and laid on the table and the committee discharged.

Mr. Armstrong seconded.

The clerk read the resolution empowering the committee to enquire into the whole matter and refer it to this House.

Mr. Robson—Very well; I wish to see if this House will insult that committee by refusing to adopt the report.

Mr. Smithe asked if the committee had sent for all the persons who could give evidence in the matter?

Mr. Robson—Yes.

Mr. Smithe knew one available witness who had not been sent for.

Mr. Robson knew of no such person. Every effort was made by the committee to procure witnesses.

Hon. Mr. Walkem—That statement is correct.

Mr. Robson—There is one witness—Mr. Dewdney—who was beyond the reach of the committee. If he could have been reached, there would have been a different report.

Mr. Bunster felt insulted by the remarks of the hon. member for Cowichan. It was a slur, an insult—as much as to say the Committee had received a "tip." Mr. Dewdney's letter went before the Committee and showed that the parties who made the road were entitled to compensation.

Mr. Smithe said, a gentleman named Moore was a claimant. Had the Committee sent for him.

Hon. Mr. Walkem said the statements of the hon. member for Cowichan were vague and baseless. The claim of Mr. Moore was laid before the Committee. The report should be adopted, laid on the table or sent back to the Committee. This discussion was irregular.

Mr. Smithe—Mr. Moore was not called for.

Mr. Armstrong was sure the Committee had done their duty.

Mr. Humphreys—This is not debatable. (A laugh.)

Mr. Armstrong—That is all very well, after you have been debating it all the time (laughter.) The contractors did not fulfil their agreement and they were to be paid for not doing it. They had not the slightest right to any remuneration. The road is not in the proper place and will never pay, and they want the Governor to pay for their blunder.

Dr. Ash had served on the Committee, and had taken pains to ascertain the facts. The hon. member for New Westminster said the trail was in the wrong place. Suppose it was, the contractors followed the line laid out by the Government surveyors.

Mr. Beaven looked upon it as a gross breach of privilege for any hon. member to tell what passed before the Select Committee.

Mr. Robson replied that the Select Committee was not a Star Chamber and that when certain baseless charges were made against the Committee, the Committee had a right to defend itself.

Mr. Humphreys called on the House to mark with its censure any attempt to vote down the report of this Committee, (hear.)

Mr. R. Smith would also vote against the resolution. Let the Government and the contractors settle the affair.

Mr. Bunster characterized the remarks of certain hon. gentlemen as unfair and unmanly. With respect to the breach of privilege, Mr. Bunster read the wrong clause from May and created much merriment thereby.

Mr. Duck supported the adoption of the report.

Hon. Mr. Robertson believed the Committee had done its duty; but there was an inflexible rule which prevented the recommendation of a money-vote by this House, which this report clearly did.

The report was received and the Committee discharged

Mr. Robson moved that the report be transmitted to the Governor.

Mr. R. Smith seconded.

The Speaker ruled it out of order.

Mr Robson appealed against the decision of the Chair. The Chair was not sustained, 11 to 9.

Mr. Robson's motion was carried 14 to 8—names were called for Ayes; Beaven, Hunter, Mara, Robson, Smith, Bunster, Humphreys, Robinson, Ash, Cogan, Duck, C. Booth, Jamieson, Hughes, 14. Noes; Robertson, McCreight Walkem, Todd, Armstrong, J. P. Booth, Smithe, Semlin, 8.

WATER BILL.

The House went into Committee, Mr C. Hughes in the Chair. After going through a few clauses,

Mr. R. Smith said, a large number of bills have been laid on the table for consideration, and one of the most important is the contemplated inauguration of a work supposed to be called the Elk Lake and Victoria Water Works, which is to supply this city with a sufficient quantity of good wholesome water, and which is a consummation devoutly to be wished for; to preserve the health is to develop the mind, to strengthen the body and save the soul, a consideration which is of more importance to this or any other country, than all the country's wealth and power. This hon. body is aware that the beautiful city is more indebted to nature than to art for the many blessings that surround it. Daily she is visited by the cool breathings of a great ocean, lightly is returned the invigorating and health giving atmosphere of the great pine mountains, upon the hills, the valleys, and even upon the inland waters that ebb and flow through the straits of Fuca. Nature is manifested in all her majesty, in all her glory and wholesome beauty, manifestations which serve to counteract the deadly evils that would arise from the bad water, the stagnant pools, and dirty gutters of this lovely city The young offspring of Victoria, judging from appearances, would outnumber the adult population, and that itself is sufficient to inspire us upward in energy of purpose. To support this enterprise, to preserve the health, nay, the life of this happy offspring, therefore let us as soon as we reasonably can do so, provide for all so that the poorest man can have good water at his door for a mere song, as regards taxation, and we shall not only be doing justice to the good people of Victoria, old and young, but will also be doing the State some service. Here is a Bill, the frame or outline of a measure, a liberal and a glorious measure, call it what you like. The immortal Shakespeare says "A rose would smell as sweet by any other name." However, this is a measure that calls upon the Provincial Government to guarantee a loan of $120,000 to supply Victoria with good water, calls upon us not only to guarantee the debentures, but also pay the sinking fund. Now this is liberal, and it supported will pass as one of the wisest and noblest Acts of this, the first session of a legislative Assembly in this Province under the form of Responsible Government. Now if we do support the passage of this Bill, such proceedings would have to be ratified by the City Government, and what do you think the City Fathers would do with it, why hoist it higher than the main truck of H.M. S. Sparrowhawk, therefore to postpone it definitely is advisable. Consequently I shall have, although reluctantly, to move that the Committee do now rise.

Mr Speaker moved that His Excellency be requested to allow the $7,000 voted on the Estimates for the Water Company, or as much of it as may be necessary to be used in surveying and drawing plans, that the House might be better informed on the bill.

The chairman said the motion was out of order, as it was not the question before the house.

Mr Smithe moved that the committee do rise and report progress and ask leave to sit again.

Carried. Leave granted.

The Standing Orders were then suspended to allow Mr. Speaker's motion to be put.

It was put by Mr. Smithe, seconded by Hon. Mr. Holbrook and carried.

Before adjourning, Mr. Robson said that the Pon. Chief Commissioner had made some remarks as to the building in which the House sits being improved. He drew the Hon. Chief Commissioner's attention to the niches over the fire places. He would suggest that a statue of Her Majesty be placed in one, and that of the Prince of Wales in the other—(Hear, hear).

Hon. Mr. Walkem said that the honorable member knew his taste in statuary.

The House then adjourned till Thursday, at two, p. m.

MAINLAND SUMMARY.—The Dominion Herald says, the Yale-Cariboo road is not by any means in such a deplorable state as we were led to believe by reports. Here and there the cribbing had given way a little, but these breaks are now for the most part repaired, and the only difficulty is a slight overflow of water at one point, From all accounts it will not cost a very large sum to keep the road in excellent order this year. ..... The Herald charges that the Guardian has praised Mr. Holbrook at the expense of the District Members, Messrs. Armstrong and Hughes..... The ship Wildwood, loading at Moody, Dietz & Nelson's, will be ready for sea in a few days..... Salmon are beginning to come in, and a few coluchans have been caught..... The Guardian says the Onward's new shaft works to a charm, and praises it as J. Spratt's handiwork .. The grass on Matsqui prairie is afoot high ..... The Herald says there is a 'rush' of travellers along the Cariboo road, and Barnard has his hands and stages full.

SNOW.—There was a flight flurry of snow about 12 o'clock last night.

City Council.

The Council met last evening at 7:30. There were present His Worship the Mayor and Councillors Gowen, McMillan, Mitchell, Taylor and Robinson. The minutes of preceding meeting were read and adopted.

The following communications were read:—

The health certificate of the steamer Prince Alfred was read and placed on file. E. Mallandaine as to the Assessment rolls.

Councillor McMillan moved and Councillor Mitchell seconded that the clerk be instructed to write to Mr. Mallandaine to the effect that unless the sum of $12 62½ be refunded, in connection with these Rolls, that legal proceedings would be commenced against him.

Mr. T. Lange, with reference to a trap being removed from Yates street. Referred to street committee.

C. Silliken, in connection with opening up a part of Bastion street to repair the S.R.W.W. pipe.

Thos. Hall, $10 50 for hay. Laid over for one week, to be compared with the pound-keeper's report.

The report of the committee on the new Gas Company about to be formed was received, and the committee discharged. It was ordered that Mr. Smith be notified that leave would be granted, subject to a bye law hereafter to be framed.

By a unanimous vote, the salary of the pound keeper was increased from $50 to $60 per month.

Councillor McMillan remarked that the Fire Department had not sent in their annual statement of receipts and expenditure.

Councillor Gowen, as Chairman of the Board of Delegates, said he would notify the Secretary of the Department to that effect.

With regard to tenders for recovering the cistern corner of Government and Yates street, the Mayor stated that the specifications had not been properly drawn up. One tender which had been sent in would not be opened, but returned to the person tendering, and further specifications drawn up.

Councillor Gowen moved, and Councillor McMillan seconded, that some person appointed by the Fire Department be allowed to copy the list of persons insured against fire, to assist the Collector in collecting the fire rate.

Councillor Gowen asked that the street committee be authorized to provide testenings for the traps to the cisterns near St. Louis College. He said several of the scholars were in the habit of lifting them, and it was very dangerous. Request granted.

The clerk read a statement of the assets and disbursements of the Council. It was ordered to be examined and signed by the auditor, and then published in both daily papers.

The Council then adjourned.

From Above.

A passenger by the Onward, direct from Cariboo, informs us that the snow was rapidly disappearing on Williams Creek; the weather was mild and an early spring anticipated. The Lane & Kurtz Co's shaft presents very favorable indications, and the general opinion of the probable results was very high, the formation in which they are now working is blue slate, which is estimated a guarantee for the proximity of gold. Goods were plentiful on the creek and prices had fallen for most articles. There was still some ice at the Mouth of Quesnelle, but it was rapidly breaking up; the Quesnelle river was open. They were about to launch the Victoria steamer and numerous boats were getting ready for the transport of goods and passengers for the Omineca mines. The quantity of snow from the 8 mile post above Quesnelmouth to Deep Creek was very small and wheeling good, thence down there were patches in the green timber, and here and there, but it was becoming very soft and could in no way interfere with traffic. From the 51-mile hill down, the road was in splendid condition, dry and hard as in summer. Two horse teams, those of Pearson Bros. and Kennedy, had started up with loads. Jim Bryant with his train will leave Yale on the 20th inst. Three stages left Yale on Sunday, two with the survey party and one for Cariboo. At Williams Lk all the seed was in the ground. At the 150 mile post Bates was erecting a grist mill and saw mill conjointly, to be driven with steam. Cattle had succeeded famously during the winter in that vicinity and are now quite fat. About the Bonaparte and Cache Creek they had mild spring weather and the cattle doing well.—Guardian.

THE TICHBORNE TRIAL.

Evidence of Kate Doughty.

SHE DISOWNS THE CLAIMANT.

His Charges Base and False.

LONDON, Feb 23.—The climax of interest in the Tichborne case has been reached. Mrs. Catherine Radcliffe—the Miss Katie Doughty of the past—the 'cousin Katie' of Roger Tichborne, whom he loved, and the 'Katie' whom the claimant swore he had seduced when she was a girl of 16—has given her testimony, and, in the opinion of nine out of every ten persons here, the case is finished. The examination of Mrs. Radcliffe commenced on Thursday afternoon. This lady is now in her 38th year; that is to say she is still in a lovely and handsome woman. I do not think it is possible that any one who saw and heard her on Thursday and yesterday could by any ingenuity or perverseness of mind bring himself to believe that she was not also a perfectly pure, honest, and truthful woman. On her fair brow shame was ashamed to sit. The Attorney General had thought it necessary to say, towards the close of his speech, that Mrs. Radcliffe would give her evidence at some considerable risk to her health, perhaps to her own life. She was then again about to become a mother; and no one can foretell what might be the consequences to her, while in this condition, of the excitement attending her examination. It scarcely needed this intimation to secure her sympathy of every one present; but Mr. Serjeant Ballantine, the wonderful adroit leading counsel for the claimant, improved even it is circumstance. When Mrs. Radcliffe was called, and before she was sworn, Mr. Ballantine said: 'My lord, I think it right to mention that I yesterday communicated to the Attorney-General that, in consequence of his statement as to the condition and health of Mrs. Radcliffe, that, whilst I should be anxious that she should be examined in chief, yet that I should ask, under the circumstances, to be remitted from the necessity of cross-examining her. I understand from learned friend that in consequence of that intimation he has obtained a medical certificate that she is fit to undergo cross-examination. I am extremely glad that the responsibility should be off my shoulders. Although I felt it to be my duty to call attention to the fact of the extreme pain it would be to have to cross-examine a lady in that condition, I understand that Dr. Farre has given a certificate which will take from myself all responsibility and place it on his own shoulders.'

Mrs. Radcliffe then removed from the centre of the court, where she had been sitting, to the chair in front of the reporters' box, which had just been vacated by Mr. Alfred Seymour; being on the opposite side of the court to the jury, and three or four yards from the judge.

My name is Catherine Radcliffe; I am the only daughter of the late Sir Edward and Lady Doughty; Roger Tichborne was my first cousin; I believe that the first time I saw him was in the year 1848, but of that I have no recollection; the next time I saw him was the last week in January, 1849, at Bath; he was then on a visit to my father; I don't think he was staying in the same house, but he used to be constantly there; I was at that time staying at Taunton; I was born in April, 1834; I remember distinctly seeing two marks on the arm of Roger Tichborne; a cross, anchor, and heart; I saw these marks in the summer of 1849; he put up his sleeves to get some flowers out of the river, and I thus saw the marks, as I did on several similar occasions; I saw them as late as Christmas, 1851, or the beginning of 1851, he asked me to have my arm tatooed; he said it would not hurt much; I replied I did not like pain, and refused; he said he had been tatooed by a sailor in Brittany or Normandy; and that he ought to have a cross on his heart, so that in case he died amongst the savages they might know he was a Christian. After seeing Roger at Bath, I saw him next in June, 1859, at Tichborne, I was then fifteen years old; he was then studying to pass the examination; he did pass it and came again to Tichborne in July, about the 1st or 2d; I kept a diary, and I fix the dates by that; here it is; during August he for several days was coming and going to Tichborne; he had been there for six or seven months before this with Lady Doughty; on the 15th my parents and I also went there on our way to Scotland; he dined with us and went on board the steamers with us; in October we returned to Tichborne, and Roger joined us there on the 15th; had then got his commission and was ready to join his regiment; his regimentals came, he put them on, and came to dinner in them; about the 20th he left us and went to Ireland; he came back on the 2nd of January, 1870; at this time Miss Braine was my governess; she came to me in December, 1837, and left me the next November; she saw Roger for the first time in January; he remained about nine or ten days; he never was there again until after she had left; on the 4th of January, 1850, I rode with Roger to the Grange, Lord Ashton's place; on the 5th he came of age, and I gave him a purse worked in the colors of the regiment; when he went abroad he left that with Mr. Gosford, and it was returned to me after Roger's death, by Mr. Gosford, in 1857; before Roger went away he gave a white alabaster rosary and a silver cross; I have the rosary still; here it is.

Q. I shall not now go further into this series of questions, but I want to ask you one other question; you were in court, Mrs Radcliffe, when the plaintiff was cross-examined with respect to his intimacy with you. A. I was.

Q. Were you aware of the charge to be made against you before that? A. Yes, I was.

Q. Was it by your desire that you were present? A. It was.

Q. You heard what he said? A. Yes.

Q. Is there one word of truth in what he said as to his relations with you? A. Certainly not; not single word.

Q. Was Roger Charles Tichborne ever guilty of taking any liberties with you? A. never.

Q. Did anything ever pass between you that you did keep or wished to keep from the knowledge of your mother? A. Never; certainly not.

Q. Was everything the plaintiff said on that subject absolutely and wholly false? A. It was.

Q. Now, you knew him well, Mrs. Radcliffe; was there anything that ever passed from him to you in act or word but that an honorable and delicate-minded man might say to a pure and innocent girl? A. Certainly not.

Prince Edward's Island.

OTTAWA, March 11.—The Prince Edward Island Government having acted on the suggestion of Mr. Secretary Fish and Sir Edward Thornton, to deal with the fishery question as though the fishery clauses of the Treaty of Washington had been confirmed, are in an awkward predicament. It is understood that a proposition to the same effect was made to the Dominion Government and recommended by the Imperial Government but that the former refused to take any action in the matter until authorised by Parliament.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 13.—There is great excitement in Prince Edward Island over political troubles. An American named Carleton paid Hooper, a member of the House, $1000 to support the Government. Hooper brought the matter before the House and said he took the money to trap the Government, and now would oppose them. Carleton after being brought to the bar of the House ran away. After several hard days fighting in the House, the Government on Monday dissolved it, and writs will be issued for new elections.

A 'joke' is credited an American visitor in England. 'Wal, stranger,' he is reported to have said. 'I guess you English juries ain't smart, nohow. If an American jury had tried the Tichborne case I'll tell you what they'd have done. They'd just bought up all the Tichborne bonds, and then found a verdict for the plaintiff.'

He took her fancy when he came; he took her hand he took a kiss; he took no notice of the shame that glowed her happy cheek at this. He took to coming afternoons; he took an oath he'd ne'er deceive; he took her father's silver spoons; and then he took his leave.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD

A MEDICINE THAT cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, which undermine the health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humours that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humours to some internal organ or organ whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humours from the blood. When they are gone the disorders they produce disappear such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumours, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY & COLOR

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment and hereditary predisposition all turn the hair gray; either of them diseases it to fall off prematurely; the effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. Dr Ayer's consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of women and men. His HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of this art. If you are displeased or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore it by a timely use and with it your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair it has no superior,

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

ITS EFFECT IS

MIRACULOUS.

IT IS A PERFECT AND WONDERFUL article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any oil or pomatum. Softens brush, dry and wiry hair into Beautiful Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but it does at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

The first application will do good: you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.

Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect.

See that each bottle has our private Government Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.
